ALL THINGS HAVE THEIR SEASON

We laugh, we cry, we study,

We worry and anticipate.

And when the year is over

When the books are closed,

We sit back and reflect.

Yes, there is a proper time for everything, and this is

A TIME FOR REFLECTION.

HOLLY SLAGLE CROWNED AT HOMECOMING VICTORY

NorthWood's football season was highlighted with a successful Homecoming when the Panthers defeated their opponent, New Prairie, 21-13.

Each class entered a float based on the theme, "Panther Victory Is Music To The Ear." Many hours of hard work were spent in completing the finished products. The Junior and Senior classes succeeded in capturing awards.

Holly Slagle was chosen by the student body to reign as Homecoming Queen. She was crowned by her sister, Nancy, who was the 1977 Homecoming Queen.

Following the game, NorthWood students danced to the beat of "Revolver".

AIMEE BROCK WINS CROWN

Highlighting an impressive 88-31 Basketball victory over Triton, was the crowning of Aimee Brock as Sweetheart Queen. The crowning of the Queen took place between basketball games and in front of a large homecoming-night crowd.

The court consisted of Pam Mullett and Leisha Miller as the other two senior Queen contestants. Class attendants were Tonya Miller, Junior; Julie DuBois, Sophomore; and Shelly Sutter, Freshman.

The Student Council, once again, decorated the gym with big red hearts which went along with the tradition of Valentine's Day.

"ALLY OOP" ENJOYED BY AUDIENCE

The music department once again sponsored NW's Variety Show, "Panthers On Parade." This event gives the students a chance to show their talent.

"Ally Oop," a comedy act, received a standing ovation. This act included Don Bennett, Rob Slagle, Guy Middleton, John Brady, Steve Strakowski and Rick Pearson dressed as cave men.

Solos and Ensembles also were enjoyed by the crowd. The Drama Club sang and the Jazz Band and Dawning Generation performed. The music varied from a solo on an accordion to a rock group called "Mind High".

The evening was enjoyed by the audience and was very successful.

TONIA METZLER CROWNED 1979 JUNIOR MISS

November fifth, the Nappanee Jaycees sponsored the Junior Miss Pageant. Six senior girls competed for the title and were judged on physical fitness, poise, appearance, talent, scholastic ability, and a judge's interview.

Kami Heckaman, Deb Egging, and Robin Bowers received participation awards. Caroline Popowzak was named Miss Congeniality and Liz Lehman was First Runner-Up. Tonia Metzler was crowned the 1979 Junior Miss.

SWAP DAY ENJOYED BY MANY

SWAP Day (Swap With A Parent) was once again a success. It was held November 17 this year and many parents and friends participated. The "swappers" enjoyed going back to school and experiencing an abbreviated school day. This year, displays were set up in the cafeteria by various organizations and clubs and were enjoyed by the parents during their "study hall."

DAVID AND LISA FALL PRODUCTION

The Drama Department presented David And Lisa for their fall production. David And Lisa was the story of two mentally handicapped students. The play followed the two individuals during one term at Berkley School, a special school in Connecticut.

David and Lisa, played by Dean Blucker and Laurie Brady, portrayed two students who were searching for a meaningful relationship in a society which often ignored their problems. The Berkley School was run by Dr. Alan Swineford, played by Ed Boyts, and it gave the disturbed students guidance and helped them to adjust and cope with their situations.

The audience was made aware of some of the problems that exist within the younger generation, and how these problems may be treated.

"OLIVER"

The NorthWood Drama Department presented "Oliver" as their spring production. Taken from Charles Dicken's famous novel Oliver Twist, the play centered on a poor boy in England.

The play's cast included several elementary students who played the role of pickpockets. Trevor Paulus did an outstanding job playing the part of "Oliver." Fagin (Bryan Meister) was the elderly man who ran the training academy for the many young pickpockets.

The play emphasized the poverty present in England, and how the people coped with this problem. "Oliver" was presented three nights, all of which an attentive audience was present.

PANTHERS NOTED FOR THEIR SPIRIT

NorthWood was known throughout the county for its spirit and enthusiasm shown during the 1978-79 school year. "Panther Pride" was expressed in all sports by the strong support given by students, parents, and faculty.

Pep sessions, spirit week, and hall decorations all contributed to getting the Panthers fired up. Spirit week was held before Homecoming and the sectional. Sock, hat, future, and the traditional red and black day were part of spirit week. Many students participated in these activities by wearing many unique outfits.

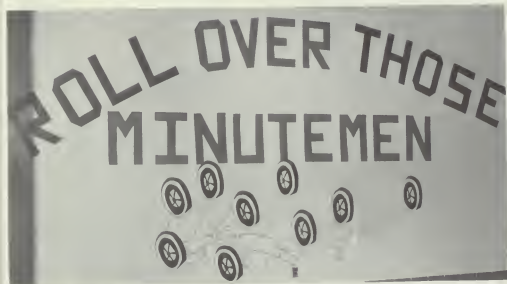

The cheerleaders and pep club members made sure that the halls were attractively decorated throughout the year. They also recognized the athletes by putting decorations on each athlete's locker.

MANY ENJOY "COME SAIL AWAY"

Amish Acres was chosen as the setting for the 1979 Junior-Senior Prom. The prom centered around the theme "Come Sail Away." Hors d'oeuvres were served, and then the guests enjoyed a delicious meal. Brad Gross and Holly Slagle were chosen to reign as prom King and Queen.

Following the meal, the couples went to the high school for a formal dance and a movie. "E. J. Hawkins" provided the music and the movie "One On One" was shown. In coordination with the theme, a sail boat was given away. Scott Giska was the lucky winner.

The after-prom activities consisted of bowling and a movie. "Blazing Saddles" was shown for the after-prom movie. Despite the cold weather which ruined many Sunday plans, the weekend was one to remember.

GRADUATION HELD MAY 20

For the third time in the history of Norwood High School students from the graduating class gave the baccalaureate-commencement address. Brad Gross spoke on "A Foundation For The Future" and Dave Zercher told the class to "Remember Who You Are . . . And Who You Can Be".

The class colors were Royal Blue and Ivory and the class flower was the Rose. The class also chose as their motto: Do not follow where the path leads, rather go where there is no path and leave a trail.

The choir and band also presented a few numbers. The choir sang "Corinthians II" and "Make Tomorrow's Memories Now". The band did a fine job with "Emperate Overature".

After all of the diplomas were handed out and the class was presented to the audience as the Graduating Class of 1979, the graduates left the gymnasium for the last time as a whole class.

Bands Do Well at Contest

The bands once again completed another successful year at NW. The Marching Band entertained the football fans at half time with interesting programs. They also received a second division rating at Marching Band Contest.

The Symphonic and Varsity Bands performed two concerts this year, one at Christmas and one in the Spring. The Jazz Band played in three festivals this year and scored well. One highlight for the Jazz Band was to play at Kings Island. They also received a first at NIS-BOVA.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

Mrs. Rick Coffin directed the school choirs through another outstanding year. Winter and Spring concerts were the highlight of the year even though the Spring Concert had to be postponed one week due to damage done to the Auditorium during a heavy storm. The band and choirs again combined for a portion of the Christmas show.

NorthWood Choirs were well represented again at solo and ensemble contests where many first place medals were won.

One of the highlights for The Dawning Generation was a trip in the spring to Cincinnati where they gave an outstanding performance.

ART: SELF-DISCOVERY

We were extremely proud of our Art students for the beautiful job they did in their many and varied courses. Art classes encouraged students to draw, paint, sketch, and design. Advanced students also studied jewelry, textiles, and different techniques in various medium. Being able to put on paper what was seen and felt was most important. From the looks of the displays, the art teachers taught the students very well.

RIGHT: J. Peterson put the finishing touches on a project.

P.E.: SELF DEVELOPMENT

Physical Education courses helped many students develop good muscular coordination. Courses in tennis, bowling, health, weight control, volleyball, and basketball were offered to Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, while the Freshmen took general P.E. Again this year, Mrs. Peg Hooley from the Elkhart Police Department gave several days of instruction on self-defense.

Drivers Education students took to the road after several weeks of classroom work, while the teachers tried not to have nervous breakdowns.

TOP LEFT: T. Bauman had a bad day bowling.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS: CREATIVITY

Industrial Arts classes provided materials and machinery to help students learn how to draw on small scale, repair cars, and make wood products. Many valuable trades such as Auto mechanics, mechanical drawing, and wood working were learned in more advanced classes. These classes might help students get better jobs after graduation. A sense of pride was felt by the teachers when students finished many beautiful projects.

HOME EC: DOMESTICS

Home Economics students enjoyed learning how to cook, sew, and plan for a husband and family. Courses offered included Foods I and II, Clothing I, Creative Clothing, Housing and Marriage, and Child Development. Some projects included foods labs, scrapbooks in Marriage and Family Living that portrayed the different kinds of love, and raising an egg as a baby.

TOP LEFT: C. Blessing, J. Wenger, and T. Collins prepared for a dessert party in Foods II.

MIDDLE: A. Stauffer enjoyed the food at a party.

BOTTOM: J. Sumpter enjoyed putting on an apron and making something special.

BUSINESS: PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

The Business department worked to teach students in General Business and Business Law classes many everyday situations we face in life, while courses such as Shorthand, Typing, Accounting, Business machines, and office practice taught students the skills of office work. All of these classes required dedication, practice, and outside preparation.

RIGHT TOP: Many boys chose to take Typing I.

RIGHT MIDDLE: D. King kept his eyes on his book, not his keys.

CAREER CENTER: VOCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Many NorthWood students spent four hours a day at the Elkhart Area Career Center. The students worked at learning their choice of vocation, and after many hours of class time they worked at that vocation under regular circumstances. Some course choices include Cosmetology, Nurses Aide, Television, Photography, and Drafting.

BELOW: R. Ramer put to use his knowledge of machines in machine shop.

HUMANITIES:

A VARIETY

Many parts of the world and their cultures were studied in social studies and History. Human behavior was also studied in Psychology and Sociology courses. In Foreign Language this year was Mr. Aballi's last year as a teacher at North-Wood. Mr. Aballi has been a Spanish teacher in our school system for many years and we were all sad to see him leave. Mr. Brugger, our German teacher has some advice for students taking German in the future: "Everyone should take a little German, like Heini Schmuck, he's only 3 foot 8 inches." He also asks the question, "What is life?" English classes helped students learn basic grammar as well as writing stories, reports, and poetry.

BELOW MIDDLE: S. Strakowski and B. Meister express the feelings of the characters they portray as C. Brubaker intervenes.

BELOW RIGHT: A guest speaker talked to the English classes about the drug problem.

POLITICAL SCIENCE: OUR NATION

Government, Economics, and Civics students studied the Economical and political structures of our country and applied it to everyday living. Civics, a freshman required course, is a brief study of the nations political system whereas Government goes into a greater detail. Economics deals with the nations economy. A few of the projects the students participated in were debates between the union and management of an imaginary business, and housing projects in which students constructed their own miniature houses. Political cartoons were also created by the students in Government classes.

STUDENTS

MASTERED MATH

AND SCIENCE

The Science department set as its goal for the 1978-79 school year to help students learn and appreciate the many wonders of nature. While Chemistry students learned many chemical equations, Biology students dissected many animals that helped them learn the general anatomy of living creatures.

Math classes taught students how to work with numbers in many various ways. Students in the math courses put in long hours doing homework assignments. Proofs, shapes, variables, and equations were words heard often in the math department.

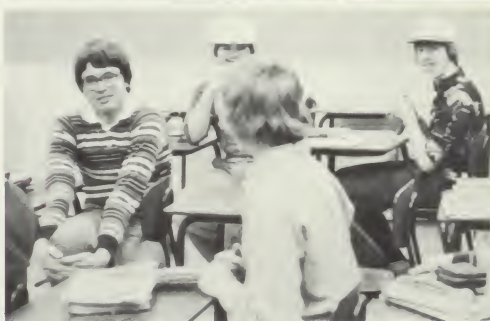

OPPOSITE BOTTOM RIGHT: Mr. Weaver used the overhead to make a point.

NorthWood students had to get used to the idea that Phil Lehman was no longer a business teacher, but Assistant Principal. He replaced Ted Wesolek who became Wakarusa Middle School's principal. Michael Keppler served as principal for his second year.

The School Board and superintendents were busy throughout the year trying hard to keep the school system in top working order. One of the main items they were confronted with was a large remodeling project planned for NorthWood.

The administrative secretaries kept busy keeping the records in order and meeting the many demands as secretaries.

Taking the place of Susan Snider as school nurse was Helen Stackhouse. She was busy learning many new faces and performing the many duties as a school nurse.

NORTHWOOD CHEERLEADERS BOOST PANTHER SPIRIT

NorthWood was honored with a fine group of cheerleaders for the 1978-79 school year. Their enthusiasm was an encouragement to all who were present at the many sports activities. The girl's spirit carried the teams through times of discouragement as well as times of triumph.

The many hours spent decorating the halls and putting up posters were appreciated by all the students. The cheerleaders also organized "Spirit Day" which was a time of fun for the students.

The cheerleaders presented different skits and songs at the pep sessions held throughout the year. The Panther spirit was kept alive through the originality the girls displayed.

The Boy's and Girl's Pep Clubs did a great job in helping to support the Panthers during the football and basketball seasons. Their enthusiasm, loyalty, and class, helped them to represent NorthWood in the best possible way. They never lost their spirit or strong faith in their team, even when the final seconds were ticking off the clock.

NorthWood was proud to have one of the best organized pep clubs at sectional, which caused us to be held in high esteem by surrounding schools.

The Pep band was that group of musical people which entertained at all home games. The band did a great job in helping to inspire the crowd's spirits before and during the games. Without them, we would be able to hear Mr. Carter announcing the starting line-up!

"MUD BOWL" HIGHLIGHTS CAMPUS LIFE

Campus Life, noted for its unique activities, kept members entertained in a variety of ways during the 1978-79 school year. A new activity, known as the "mud bowl", was introduced to the members. NorthWood members battled Jimtown students with a mud fight in a watered-down field near Wakarusa.

Meetings were held regularly on Monday nights at member's homes. These meetings involved discussions on various topics and gave students a chance to relax with their friends.

Over Spring Vacation, Campus Life sponsored a trip to Florida. Many members took advantage of the opportunity to travel to the "Sunshine State." There they enjoyed the warm weather and other highlights of Florida.

The club also sponsored the musical group "Under New Management" which performed in a convocation at NorthWood.

FOG DELAYS TRAVEL CLUB

The Washington Travel Club was delayed four hours in Fort Wayne when leaving for Washington. Dense fog was the cause of the delay. Members of the Club sat around the airport playing cards and eating snacks in order to pass time.

Upon arriving in Washington, the Club was delighted to find out that the New York Giants were staying in the same hotel as they were.

Washington had many attractions to offer. Some of them being the Capitol, Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, and the Washington Monument. The Club also visited the White House, Arlington Cemetery, and the Smithsonian Institute.

ASSISTANTS ARE BUSY . . .

Many students donate their time to the offices by performing various duties. Answering the telephone with cheerful "hello's", and taking and delivering messages to faculty members and students is one of the major jobs.

The library assistants became very familiar with the lay-out of the library and aided many students in obtaining information.

FCA HAS AN ENJOYABLE YEAR

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

FCA had a great year in fun and fellowship.

They had several gym nights when members came to the gym at night. They played a variety of games including basketball, volleyball, dodgeball, and kickball. Devotions followed the activities.

In the spring, members went on a canoe trip to Shanklin Park. There they enjoyed various activities and fellowship. It was an enjoyable year.

Saturday's child is an educational program for children grades 1-6. The program lasts for 6 weeks and is very much enjoyed by the children and the students who taught the classes. Held on Saturday's, such classes as Spanish, drama, guitar, and many others were taught. Y-teens organizes and sponsors Saturday's Child along with providing volunteer help for the students teaching classes.

Y-teens also held a Christmas party for preschool children. A pinata was constructed and added to the festivities. Several programs after school were held, one of them being a program on cake decorating. Another session was with a local florist. A slumber party was held early in the year in order for the girls to get acquainted.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY AND MEDIA CLUB

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service were four qualifications students had to meet in order to become National Honor Society members. Twenty-six new students were chosen by the faculty for membership in this honorary group. Mr. Frederick and Mrs. Parcell served as the sponsors of this club.

This year the students of NWHS were introduced to a new club: Media Club. This club was organized to give the members a better understanding of the audio-visual equipment used at the high school. The members were a valuable asset to the teachers, helping operate the equipment for classroom use.

STUDENT COUNCIL PERFORMS MANY DUTIES . . .

Activities performed by the student council included planning and organizing Swap Day and Career Day. Homecoming and Sweetheart festivities were also planned and carried out by council members, as well as class officers, student council, and cheerleading elections.

The Christmas Project this year, sponsored by the council, was the Christmas Barrels. Each class had a jar which was set up in the cafeteria during the noon hour. The money collected was given to the Salvation Army. The winning class, with the most money, was the Senior class. They were served milk and donuts before school for their efforts.

Convocations were also sponsored by student council, among them were a singer and a professional frisbee team.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA (F.F.A.)

LEARNING TO DO
DOING TO LEARN
EARNING TO LIVE
LIVING TO SERVE

"Practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and responsibilities, and develop those qualities of leadership a future farmer should possess."

The F.F.A. motto is important to the F.F.A. in everyday life and is said at all important meetings.

The highlight in this organization is the annual banquet held at Port-A-Pit Banquet Hall, where the awards for the past year are given. Other activities included the slave auction, seed sales, and a display at the Concord Mall for the Salute to Agriculture.

MUCH TIME SPENT ON YEARBOOK

The staff of the 1979 LOGUE worked together with advisor, Mrs. Korenstra, and editor, Lynette Miller, to put together this year's LOGUE. Each member of the staff worked on a separate section of the yearbook and was responsible for his or her sections. Together with the help of all the members, the deadlines were met and the LOGUE completed.

There is much hard work that goes into the making of a yearbook. Lynette Miller, editor, and junior editor, Jill Myers, attended a yearbook seminar in San Angelo, Texas before the school year started. They learned many helpful things. The staff and members sold ads in the fall to the local businesses. As the pictures got taken of the various activities, the work began. Layouts, cropping, and writing copy were just some of the work that went into the yearbook.

Throughout this year we have experienced many new and exciting adventures that have reflected on our lives in many ways. We have tried to make the LOGUE a book that will be full of memories of our high school days together.

I would like to be sure that this year all those who contributed their help and time will receive their full share of credit. First of all I owe a huge thanks to the staff. This year the LOGUE was everybody's responsibility and not just the editor's. At this time I would like to thank them specifically—Diane Royer, Assistant Editor; Jill Myers, Junior Editor; Holly Slagle and Laura Stover, Album; Kelly George and Dacia Soliday, Activities; Melody Rohrer and Tammy Bauman, Sports; Karen Ummel and Vicky Leinbach, Academics; Tonya Miller and Jill George, Advertisements; and Scott Hornish, Photographer. Each person worked hard and helped us meet our deadlines. I also would like to extend a special thank you to our advisor, Mrs. Korenstra. This was her first year, and I know she learned a lot right along with us. She had patience when tempers were short, she boosted morale during darker moments and gave encouragement which helped us complete the LOGUE. I also would like to thank Mr. Keppler, Mr. Lehman, the faculty, club sponsors and the student body. Bud Miner also receives thanks for all the time he spent taking and developing pictures and for the use of his cameras and film.

I hope you have enjoyed the 1979 yearbook as much as we enjoyed putting it together for you. It was a learning experience for all of us. Remember that the book is now yours to use if you have a little time for REFLECTION.
